

Doug Bird

Doug Bird has been a long time dedicated board member, volunteer and official for Swim Alberta. Doug is past President of Swim Alberta, a position he held from 2004 – 2014. During this period, he sat on numerous provincial committees to support the development of the sport of swimming. In addition to his role with Swim Alberta, Doug served on the board of the Lindsay Park Sport Society (Talisman Centre) as director and chair and provided leadership to the planning and expansion of a second 50-meter pool. At the grass-roots level, Doug was actively involved with the University of Calgary Swim Club, still actively officiating at the local and provincial level. Doug has served as a member of the Swim Canada board for the last 3 years.

Doug retired from Imperial Oil in 2013 and actively spends his free time cycling, cross-country skiing and travelling.
